Pragmatic Works Teams Up with Technitrain to Bring Performance Tuning Training to the UK

Jacksonville, FL – U.S.-based Pragmatic Works has teamed up with Technitrain to provide SQL Server Performance Tuning training to residents of the United Kingdom. This 5-day hands on course is designed to provide DBAs with the tools and knowledge that are required to keep their SQL Servers running efficiently and reliably.

The class is being presented by Bradley Ball in partnership with Technitrain. Bradley is a Microsoft SQL Server MVP with over a decade of experience. Bradley spent 8 years working as a defense contractor for clients such as the U.S. Army, The Executive Office of the President of the United States, and Publix Supermarkets. He is currently the Data Platform Management Lead for Pragmatic Works and a Microsoft VTSP. He has presented at many SQL Saturdays, PASS SSUGs, SQL Rally, DevConnections, SQL Live 360, and at the PASS Summit 2011 - 2014.

"We are excited to partner with Technitrain to bring our training courses to the UK," says Devin Knight, Training Director of Pragmatic Works. "They are leaders in the European SQL Server community and by partnering with them, we are able to bring our Data Platform offerings to the UK SQL Server community."

"Pragmatic Works has a top-class reputation in the SQL Server world for their training and consultancy. We're very pleased to be working with them, and we're sure that their courses will be a great success here in the UK," said Chris Webb, Director of Technitrain.
